The Alberta Kodály Association's mandate to support post-secondary music education is reflected in our province-wide efforts by encouraging students to attend Singposium 2009: SOUND PROGRESSION

Friday's sequential sessions are specifically designed to introduce teachers to Kodály practices.

In addition, the AKA is subsidizing each student registration as reflected in the low cost. Your future as a music teacher will be joyful and rewarding with support from your colleagues. WELCOME!

Kodály: A SOUND PROGRESSION

One full day of interactive sessions will be offered in either English or French.

Experience an overview of Kodály principles and practice. Delegates will take home a valuable resource of songs, games and activities for grades 1 – 6.

(English) Heather Morris

Based on the Kodály philosophy of teaching music, each of today's sessions will show how students in the classroom can be taken from simply learning music by rote to actually being able to read musical notation. Each session will include sample activities for grades one/two, three/four and five/six.

(French) Rachel Jean

Rien de plus plaisant que d'apprendre la musique avec des jeux, des danses, des rondes et des exercices concrets de manipulation. Au cours de la journée, nous travaillerons un répertoire de chansons, jeux et exercices pour les jeunes de la maternelle à la 6e année inclusivement qui vise à mettre la musique dans l'oreille, à conscientiser et ensuite à maîtriser quelques concepts musicaux propres à chaque niveau. Nous puiserons dans la collection Via Musica de Sr. Thérèse Potvin (Mes chansons, ma musique; Tes chansons, ta musique; etc...qui contient plusieurs disques, des livres et un DVD). Apportez-vous des souliers et des vêtements confortables parce que ça va bouger!!
